

12th December 2022

Everyone wants to be successful,
until they see what it actually takes.

It is hard to be a leader!

Adults are hard to manage.

Disappointment is hard to mask.

Complaints erode confidence. Relying on others to hold your values as truths is exhausting.

Have a look around today and email
those that you hold in high regard. It might be the first positive Interaction
they've had this week!
