A THOUGHT FOR YOUR STUDENTS ...

Christmas is tough for so many of our students. Go and speak to a head of year, a SENCo or a pastoral lead to ask who may need some of your intentional time before the end of term. Find casual ways of involving that student with 'school stuff' because it is great to be both involved and distracted from the 'chocolate box' holiday.

Colleagues can also find this a tough time of year with so much pressure to LOVE all that is Christmas. Be the one that thinks and supports without needing someone to ask.
